Crypto Check-in: A Mid-Year Expedition into Market Trends and Insights

Adrian Fritz

Head of Research

"Crypto Check-in: A Mid-Year Expedition into Market Trends and Insights" is a focused workshop led by Adrian Fritz, Head of Research at 21Shares. In this session, Adrian will guide participants through the latest trends, market analyses, and potential investment opportunities within the crypto landscape as of mid-year. The workshop aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of current market dynamics, including significant movements and their drivers, emerging technologies, and strategic investment approaches. Attendees will also have the chance to engage directly with a leading expert during an interactive Q&A session, making this an invaluable opportunity for anyone looking to deepen their knowledge of cryptocurrency markets and strategies.

Adrian Fritz ist Head of Research bei 21Shares und erstellt datengestützte Analysen der Kryptoasset-Industrie.
